Heaven Sent

Dokken

There seems no justice when you fall in love
It gives you blindness when you are the one
The one that's hurting 'cause they've got the gun
There seems no justice when you fall in loveSave me don't let me fall
Heaven sent I heard the call
Stop me don't let me go
Touch my heart then let me knowHeaven sent
Thought you would set me free
Heaven sent
Thought it could never be
Heaven sent
If I had only seen
That you were burning the fire in meYou took my passion most of my soul
But I will come back baby stronger than before
Take my feelings leave me in pain
I will forget you one of these daysStop me from feeling this way
Heaven sent you drive me insane
Hold me don't let me go
Touch me now and let me knowHeaven sent
Thought you would set me free
Heaven sent
Thought it could never be
Heaven sent
If I had only seen
That you were burning the fire in mePassion burned I felt the fire
Touch my soul I felt desire
Now I see where we went wrong
Am I to blame? I've fallen in lovePassion burned I felt the fire
Touch my soul I felt desire
Now I see where we went wrong
Heaven sent but you're not the oneHeaven sent
Thought you would set me free
Heaven sent
Thought it could never be
Passion burned I felt the fire
Heaven sent but baby you're not the oneHeaven sent
Heaven sent
Heaven sent
I felt the fireHeaven sent

Heaven sent
Heaven sent
Heaven sent but baby you're not the one
