

Listen To The Waves Singing

New World Revolution

Once I was a soldier
Fought in many wars
Now I'm heading straight into a storm
Embraced by deafening silence Listen to the waves singing
Listen to the beat of my heart
Listen to the birds of prey
Listen to the voices in the dark Once I was a sinner
Helped build a tower to touch the sky
Today I pray for salvation
Following the road to heaven Listen to the waves singing
Listen to the beat of my heart
Listen to the birds of prey
Listen to the voices in the dark
Listen to the wolves howling
Listen to the echoes of the past
Listen to the light of the sun
Listen to the shadows that we cast
