Walking On the Edge

Compuphonic

Welcome to a trip into my hurt feelings
To the center of my soul
You better bring a light to find the house of meanings
In the labyrinth of yes or noFor you
Life is just like chess
If you don't make a move
You'll lose the game like this'Cause you, you're walking on the edge
You, you chose the way of love and pain
You, don't you see the bridge I've built for you
It's just one step to start againWelcome to a trip into my emotions
To the language of my heart
You're sailing on a river that becomes an ocean
Which you can only cross with loveFor you
Life is just like chess
If you don't make a move
You'll lose the game like this'Cause you, you're walking on the edge
You, you chose the way of love and pain
You, don't you see the bridge I've built for you
It's just one step to start againFor you
Life is just like chess
If you don't make a move
You'll lose the game like this'Cause you, you're walking on the edge
You, you chose the way of love and pain
You, don't you see the bridge I've built for you
It's just one step to start again(Walking on the edge)
My baby you're
(Walking on the edge)
You, you're walking on the edge
You, you chose the way of love and pain(Walking on the edge)
My baby you're
(Walking on the edge)
You, you're walking on the edge
Only you, you chose the way of love and pain
You, don't you see the bridge I've built for you
It's just one step to start again(Walking on the edge)
You, you're walking on the edge
(Walking on the edge)
You, you chose the way of love and pain
(Walking on the edge)

You, don't you see the bridge I've built for you
(Walking on the edge)
It's just one step to start again
(Walking on the edge)You, you're walking on the edge
(Walking on the edge)
You, you chose the way of love and pain
(Walking on the edge)
You
