

Sanctuary

SEU Worship

When life is heavy, my strength is faint.
There's beauty for ashes, there's joy in my pain.
Here in the quiet, I will wait for your hope to appear.
I will wait for your hope to appear.

Near in my trials, near in my fears.
Forever faithful.
God you're in my tears, your love is loyal.
I will wait for your hope to appear, I will wait for your hope to appear.

We are wrapped in resurrection.
You have clothed us in your glory.
Now our hearts are no longer wandering.
You've become our sanctuary.

All who are wounded, you tenderly heal.
For hearts that are hurting, your grace is revealed. Burdens are lifted as the presence of Jesus appears.
The hope we prayed for is here.

We are wrapped in resurrection.
You have clothed us in your glory.
Now our hearts are no longer wandering.
You've become our sanctuary.

What once was full of sorrow, your love turned into good.
What once left me in pieces, your strength restored in full.
My trust is in your word lord, you have the final say.
My hope is in your promise, that there's an empty grave.

What once was full of sorrow, your love turned into good.
What once left me in pieces, your strength restored in full.
My trust is in your word lord, you have the final say.
My hope is in your promise, that there's an empty grave.

We are wrapped in resurrection.
You have clothed us in your glory.
Now our hearts are no longer wandering.
You've become our sanctuary.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>