

Sleep Deprived

Beau

Don't forget the way you act
And who you are
To the people closest to your back
They'll never forgive you
When you go all alone
Even on your own, ooh
Take my advise
It's short and you'll learn a lot
Giving it all of to the past it's not what the what you got
I don't wanna go alone
But I'm gonna try on my own
And if I had enough to try
I wouldn't be so sleep deprived
And if you've called on my name
I would woke out and change
And if I had enough to try
I wouldn't be so sleep deprived
And if you've called on my name
I would woke out and change
A fairing light, so cold and so bright
I just can't keep warm
With you standing next to me breathing so heavily
It feels so foreign
All these possibilities of upcoming centuries are being born
As we just stand still
And if I had enough to try
I wouldn't be so sleep deprived
And if you've called on my name
I would woke out and change
And if I had enough to try
I wouldn't be so sleep deprived
And if you've called on my name
I would woke out and change
