

Pointless Nostalgic

Jamie Cullum

Ain't thinking 'bout love today
Lost in the sunlight
Walking down memory lane
Ain't thinking 'bout you today
People from the past that I knew
Are slowly slipping away
Seems so long ago
Since we were carefree
Photographs lost in time are all I see
A pointless nostalgic
That's me, that's me
Thoughts running round my head today
Times from the past popping up
Where they're from I don't know
Reminiscing my cares away
Wishing I could go back and change
The points that were low
Till I've realized what life's meant to be
Photographs lost in time are all I see
A pointless nostalgic
That's me, that's me
Reminiscing my cares away
Wishing I could go back and change
The points that were low
Till I've realized what life's meant to be
Photographs lost in time are all I see
A pointless nostalgic
That's me, that's me
It's all I'll ever be
It's all I'll ever be
'Cause that's me
It's all I'll ever be
'Cause that's me
