

Captivate

Marcel Dettmann

You say, strength is found in weakness
 Peace in incompleteness
 So why do I hold on?
You look, for a heart that's open
 For beauty in the broken
 So why am I withdrawn?
 My soul's screaming out
 To be found in You
 Spirit draw me to my knees
 Captivate all of me, all of me
 Here before You honestly
 Captivate all of me, all of me
 I'm so messy and distracted
 Undisciplined and tactless
 Here on the inside
I thought age would tell the secrets
 But the secrets are still secret
 And the years are passing by
 My soul's screaming out
 To be found in You
 Spirit draw me to my knees
 Captivate all of me, all of me
 Here before You honestly
 Captivate all of me, all of me
Teach me to wait in the moments of my need
 Teach me to hear the melodies of peace
 Spirit draw me to my knees
 Captivate all of me, all of me
 Here before You honestly
 Captivate all of me, all of me
 Spirit draw me to my knees
 Captivate all of me, all of me
 Here before You honestly
 Captivate all of me, all of me
