Mad House (w/Tech N9ne)

Insane Clown Posse

Welcome... to the Madhouse...
Here ghost wail and moan
Skeletons rattle trying to escape there prisoning coffins (Wicked Shit)
Grimlins and skulls gasp a death (ICP Tech N9ne)
You have enterd the Mad HouseSombody open the fuckin door and let me in!
The worlds are about to get me again
Shit ain't pretend I'm safer in the madhouse
Clinging to the selene like a spider
I'm out of your mind like frozen fire
Razorblade fingers scratchin my neck
Lost in the maze I found a dragon barbeque in the back
A arm came out of the toilet and squaws my balls
That shirt hurt got me head but holes in the walls
I wanna see you!
I hear you!
I catch spirits and ghosts by there invisible throats and then tear through (tear through)
Never scary boo bitch I'm a kamikaze
Swimmin through the living room watching joni and chachi
And then I realize I'm potsy trapped in the tv
Sombody changed the channel and got the better of meYour ain't never gettin in and we ain't never gettin out
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!
It don't matter where you run to scream or shout
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!
Your ain't never gettin in and we ain't never gettin out
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!
It don't matter where you run to scream or shout
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!So many dimensions and lines except for these levels of dips and devil
Ain't been alright sense the ghetto better wait for my temper settle
Cause my mind is a madhouse the n9ne fittin spaz out
Player haters don't throw stones if you grind in a glass house
Sometimes when I lash out I pass out how sick and insanse and vain can this be Wanna fly your little head like a frisbee six six triple eight forty six ninede nine thrisde
This strange and psychopathic homie this is not disney
The madhouse continues to pin you send you psycho bitches to the back of the venue
Then you slitther when like when I'm here in you or off in you
Then my homies 2 dope and Jay do you up somthin real ???
Level of madness extasy shrooms and acid
Beats release but you can't find me in lake placid

Finnaly in missouri dissily struttin with a bad bitch
Her last kid was disastres ICP on some Mad Shit!Your ain't never gettin in and we ain't never gettin out
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!
It don't matter where you run to scream or shout
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!
Mad...House... Mad House
It don't matter where you run to scream or shout
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!Peekaboo anybody home? where you at?
Tryin to be sneaky creeping behind me mutha facka I saw that rail
Maybe its a mirror or a different person he was grabbin his nuts and spittin and curseing at me fag!
There somethings in this life that I fail to understand even as even as a grown man I don't comprehend
Like how in the fuck did I walk up the stairs and some fucking how I ended up down here
Well laughing and giggleing like a little school girl with my homies Jay and Tech ain't even there Hmmm
What the fuck not a damn single bitch in this place but some ones figgin my nuts

A lot of mother fucker claim the insanity plead but not me
Its this house that's gone mad I'm insane as can be!Your ain't never gettin in and we ain't never gettin out
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!
It don't matter where you run to scream or shout
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse!

It don't matter where you run to scream or shout
Cause I hold the key to unlock this madhouse! (Let me out the Madhouse)
