Addicted To You

Brian McComas

I, I used to be my own man
Head up high gettin' by
Baby I had my own planBut you, you came out of nowhere
Tangled me up in your ways
Now I'm dazed, girl it ain't fair
You just don't careYou got me drunk like wine
Higher than the stars
Baby when you hit me, you hit me hard
I'm lost in a dream
And I'm livin' it through you
I'm addicted to you, yeahI, I know I need to get away
But every time I try
You find a way to make me stayI got you runnin' through my veins
You hurt me time and time again
But I come back for the pain
It's so insaneYou got me drunk like wine
Higher than the stars
Baby when you hit me, you hit me hard
I'm lost in a dream
And I'm livin' it through you
I'm addicted to you, addicted to youYeah I keep on gettin' higher
Yeah I'm lost in my desire
And you're fuelin' the fireYeah I'm drunk like wine
Higher than the stars
Baby when you hit me, you hit me so hard
I'm lost in a dream
And I'm livin' it through you
I'm addicted to you, addicted to youHead up in the clouds
Flyin' through the air
I know that I should
But baby I don't care
Sometimes I wish that
I never knew you
I'm addicted to you
Addicted to you yeah
Oh to you, I'm addictedAlright
