

Live It Up, Pt. 1

The Isley Brothers

You never want to comfort me
Knowing what you really need
You always say you've had enough
You never want to live it up But everybodys got to move and
Everybodys got to groove
Everybody needs love sure enough
Everybody ought to live it up
Well what did I do that was wrong
I just want to have some fun
I've been holding back for so long
But now I wanna, got to, live it up I've wanna make it
I know I'll have a bit of luck
To make you have a real real real real good time
Gonna make you live it up 'Cause everybodys got to move
Everybodys got to groove
Everybody is making love sure enough
Everybody ought to live it up
Well what did I do that was wrong
Just want to have me big fun
I've been holding back for too long
I got to, live it up
