Punk Boy

Natasha

Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Boy, you know my name
Don't get mad cause I ain't give you my number
Even though I know a magic spell you under
Your eyes pop open cause I am the one
Now you acting funny cause I said you done
You might as well get over it, man
I keep telling you the same over again
Now I'm a chick, boy that ain't my name
If I give this boy my hand, that's just a shame
You're really putting on a nice show
Don't hate me cause your air is low
That you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough
You get so deep cause I shut you down
You ain't next day so that means you out
Then you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough
Cause you a punk boy
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Boy, you know my name
I told my people what you said
You said you ain't saying
Funny how you acting now
You know they don't play that
You're not too smart and I'm not the one
I keep it popping like a valley girl with gum
There's a bridge, jump over it man
I'll tape it up like one of those camera mans
Now you gonna watch what you calling me
And tell your friends Tasha don't play no games
You're really putting on a nice show
Don't hate me cause your air is low
That you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough

You get so deep cause I shut you down
You ain't next day so that means you out

Then you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough
Cause you a punk boy
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Boy, you know my name
Why can't you just do something
That goes with what you say to me
You can't be a loser all your life
So call me when you get it right
Don't you know name calling
Is punk-ish and it just ain't fly
You know you're just, just, just a fool
And you'll never ever ever be cool
You're really putting on a nice show
Don't hate me cause your air is low
That you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough
You get so deep cause I shut you down
You ain't next day so that means you out
Then you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough
Cause you a punk boy
You're really putting on a nice show
Don't hate me cause your air is low
That you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough
You get so deep cause I shut you down
You ain't next day so that means you out
Then you ain't fly enough
You need the same time, enough
Cause you a punk boy
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Boy, you know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Act like you don't know my name
Boy, you know my name
