

Faith & Love

Hollis Brown

Tried to throw a strike but I couldn't pitch. I couldn't see the signs or the mit. Feeling like a boxer but I lost my sight. I couldn't jab a left or throw a rightRoll on you can have it all, if you want it you could grab it all. It's gonna take faith & love and everything you know and God knows what.Tried to be Hunter but I couldn't shoot. Tried to be a singer but I went mute. Thought I was an actor but I lost my lines. Couldn't be a painter, cause I'm color blindRoll on you can have it all, if you want it you can grab it all. Gonna take faith & love and everything you know and God knows what.Thought I was a runner but I tripped and fell. Used to skate but the ice would slowly melt. Used to roll the dice and I couldn't miss,I threw it all away now I ain't shit.
