Deep rest child, hear my prayers.
Keep my words inside your heart.
Deep rest child, have no fear.
Strength and courage lives in you.
When the light begins to fade, and darkness surrounds you.
Just know that I'm here to guide you through, the path so far from home.
Give your strength to carry on, please from your heart.
Just think of the warmth of my love, to keep you safe and warm.
To come home, safe and sound.
With me.
When the light begins to fade, and darkness surrounds you.
Just know that I'm here to guide you through, the path so far from home.
Give your strength to carry on, please from your heart.
Just think of the warmth of my love, to keep you safe and warm.
Deep rest child, hear my prayers.
Keep my words inside your heart.
Deep rest child, have no fear.
Strength and courage lives in you.
