Shallow

Ivy

Shallow, shallow
Shallow, shallowShe's in love again, oh, yeah
Rise above again, oh, yeah
His number's fading on her hand
And it's a day to rememberShallow, shallow
Shallow, shallowWhat an easy game to play
What a perfect thing to say
He tells her, "You're the world to me
Why don't we dive in together"Shallow, shallow
Shallow, shallowSun dies on a beautiful show
Dream on 'cause there's nowhere to go
He'll say what she's wanted to know
Over and over, foreverShallow, shallow
All we ever had to be
All we ever wanted to beShallow, shallow
All we ever had to be
All we ever wanted to beShallow, shallow
All we ever had to be
All we ever wanted to beShallow, shallow
All we ever had to be
All we ever wanted to be
