Kamikaze

Fictions

The princess in her flower bed Pulled the jungle underground Where cherry bombs stained the blackbirds red And explosions never make a sound Oh comet, come down Kamikaze over me And I come alive My midnight melody Oh comet, come down My captain on a snowy horse Is coming back to take me home He's coming back to take me home I'm finally fighting back a terrible force 'Cause I'm not afraid to die alone Oh comet, come down Kamikaze over me And I come alive My midnight melody Oh comet, come down Kamikaze over me And I come alive My midnight melody Oh comet, come down Oh comet, come Oh comet, come down Break down the open road Maybe I'll ride And fight back the overtow To save my life Bring in the amber glow Maybe I'll fly And go where you wanna go With your eagle eye Break down the open road Maybe I'll ride And fight back the overthrow To save my life Bring in the amber glow

Maybe I'll fly

And go where you wanna go

With your eagle eye

Eagle eye, eagle eye
