Velvet Antlers

Death Vessel

I require liquid Europa hacking at her frozen globe for an iota I have an unbridled ideation jumping over every moon with indignation velvet antlers out of reach knowing no anchor and knowing no beach
I make a frost flower demarcation I lay down in tightened boots with vegetation
velvet antlers out of reach
knowing no anchor and knowing no beach
Europa, throw the spear
I am only a lone white deer with a prior far, faraway velvet antlers in late decay I don't want to know anything in the least every animal is a certain kind of beast
I don't want to know about anything in the least every animal is a certain kind of beast
