

Wake Me Up

Norah Jones

Wake me up when it's over
Wake me up when it's done
When he's gone away and taken everything
Wake me upWake me up when the skies are clearing
When the water is still
'Cause I will not watch the ships sail away, so
Please say you willIf it were any other day
This wouldn't get the best of meBut today I'm not so strong
So lay me down with a sad song
And when it stops, then you know I've been Gone too longBut don't shake me awake
Don't bend me or I will break
Come find me somewhere between my dreams
With the sun on my faceI will still feel it later on
But for now I'd rather be asleep
