

Save You

Matthew Perryman Jones

i wanna rock and roll
i wanna give my soul
wanting to believe, im not too old dont' wanna make it up don't wanna let you down i wanna fly away
im stuck on the ground

so, help me decide
help me to make up
make up my mind
wouldn't that save you

watch it all go by
was it really true?
is that what it was
was that really you?
looking back again
chasing back the threat said it was a miss, was it just in my head?

oh wouldnt that save you

wouldnt that save you oooooohhh something's gotta break u gotta swing the bat

too many years of dying

why is that?

and so help me decide

wouldnt that save you...save you
