

Blue Monday

Tabitha's Secret

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

She wanna give it all away, yeah, she say when come the rain
I get the feeling theres something more to talk about here
So I see him and earn my keep, you know then she moved away
I pray for nothing, Im saving it all for one time I said, "Hold me now, be there when shit goes down
Dont try to pick my head, sometimes I dont make sense" Im no good just believing in someone else
Would you think I were weak if I just break down?
Oh, now its coming on again
Hold on, it wont take long
Blue Monday, its a big Monday ahead Theres a remanence to me
Yeah, when it stands where I stand
Yeah, we want nothing more of this
And I hate what I do to myself I said, "Hold me now, be there when shit goes down
Dont try to pick my head, sometimes I dont make sense" Im no good just believing in someone else
Would you think I were weak if I just break down?
Oh, now its coming on again
Hold on, it wont take long
Blue Monday, its a big Monday ahead I wanna give it all away because theres something that was nothing
Now she swears that she needed when she didnt know anything at all
I believe her and she wants to say, well
Shes more than a nothing, I say she loved ya, well Im no good just believing in someone else
Would you think I were weak if I just break down?
Oh, now its coming on again
Hold on, 'cause it wont take long
Blue Monday, big Monday ahead
