

Let You Go

Vanity Strikes

It's 3:18 in the morning counting sheep and I can't get you off my mind I play an old recording just to hear your voice say "I love you, goodbye" and I know when I fall asleep you'll be there in every dream and nightmare I'm trapped inside your love I never wanted to be free 'cause without you there's no me but I can't do this anymore!

(chorus)
You are my everything and it's killing me
'cause I know I've got to let you go and it's time to say goodbye oh, I know I've got to let you go
let you go

and I 've tried to erase every trace of you is all the pictures burned? but I still see you in everything no matter where I go, you're there at every turn will I ever learn?

I never thought it would be this way and I'm so afraid to lose my place inside your heart the only place I belong and I'm tired of feeling like a broken record spinning on and on it's time to take the needle off!

and I don't want to let you go but it's better off this way and I just hope that you know you'll always be a part of me no matter where I go no matter what I do I'll always love you
