

Strong

Matt Goss

To the lows, to the highs
To the tears in my eyes, you amaze me (yeah)
From the joy, to the love
To the never giving up, that's what made me (yeah)
And I've felt pain and greatness,
A deepest pride and even shame,
And I've been lost and found, I fell upon a higher groundChorus
It feels good to be strong
Like a river rolling, rolling on (that's me) yeah
It feels good to be strong (oh lord)
And I will never walk alone (not me)
It feels good to be strong (oh yeah)To the fearful and the brave,
The unknown of every day, you amaze me (yeah)
To the hurt, to the lies, to the journey, to the prize, thats what made me (yeah, yeah)
And I've felt pain and greatness,
The deepest pride and even shame,
And I've been lost and found, I fell upon a higher groundChorus
It feels good to be strong
Like a river rolling, rolling on (that's me) yeah
It feels good to be strong (oh lord)
And I will never walk alone (not me)
It feels good to be strong (oh yeah)So lets learn and become all the good that we think
(time to raise up man, time to raise up man)
Only a fool who knows everything
(only a fool)
I feel the time for this needs to be now
(this needs to be now)
Cos Kindness is King, Kindness is King, that is the powerChorus
It feels good to be strong (oh)
Like a river rolling, rolling on (that's me) yeah
It feels good to be strong (oh lord)
And I will never walk alone (not me)
It feels good to be strong (oh)
Like a river rolling, rolling on (that's me) yeah
It feels good to be strong (strong)
