

Just Got Off The Phone (with Mr Noun & Remedeeh)

Supersci

I just got off the phone with you, but there's a lot that I cannot get of my dome 'cause boo, sometimes I feel that if we speak we holding back.

Small vocals small things that we ain't showing that.

Our feelings totally wack, the way that this is, it's tearing us apart. I never ever tell you 'bout the fear that's in my heart.

Don't wanna lose it all, that's why we scared just to talk. Scared that if i start, really admitting now how fucked up it feels.

That you were diggin' that, it's fucked up for real. Tossed up the town, drop a bomb from long distance, boom boom pow.

I can't call it out, admit that I've been considering of dealing the pre ending strike, to end these empty nights. A lot easier than to fight this dimming light. If we're supposed to end this shit, then let's end it right.

Walls are closing in, you're far away, I wish that you were close again.

Sometimes I wonder if it's all supposed to end. I have to tell you that I just can't hold it in.

That's right, now the walls are closing in.

And I don't know when I can hold you close again.

If we don't change soon I know it's gonna end.

I have to tell you now, I just can't hold it in.

I just got off the phone with you, after that sat down, for an hour and a half, tryin' to grasp the emotions that I'm blending in.

Sending in. 'cause honestly baby, we know that we, ain't where we're supposed to be. Lately, I felt that you felt, that we both felt, that there's a lack of trust.

Plus, I made you longing for love and that seems to be seperating us. Because, no matter where I find myself, I find myself, thinking, you might find someone else.

And it's killing me, but most importantly, it's killing us. That we have to force our feelings to make an exodus from our bodies. Yo I'm sorry, baby. Oh..

Walls are closing in, you're far away, I wish that you were close again.

Sometimes I wonder if it's all supposed to end. I have to tell you that I just can't hold it in.

That's right, now the walls are closing in.

And I don't know when I can hold you close again.

If we don't change soon I know it's gonna end.

I have to tell you now, I just can't hold it in.
