You're So Sober

The Trews

I'd love to say
Do you love me, but
I'm as humble as a bumble bee
I'd walk away
If you come with me or
I may crumble
For all to see

I have the weather
On my side

Hey, by the way
Did you love me girl?
The words I mumble
As she leaves
I'll be okay
As long as you won't be burdened
You don't fumble
You don't grieve
You don't think whether
You don't think twice

You're so sober
You only broke me
You, only broke me
Yeah,you're so sober
You're so sober
You only broke me
You, only broke me
Yeah, you're so sober

Lay the blame
Make it worthy and
Sift through rubble
For debris
Cause nothings day begins
I'm noticing lately that the
When things trouble, we'll end the breeze

I have the weather

On my side

You're so sober
You only broke me
You, only broke me
Yeah, you're so sober
You're so sober
You only broke me
You, only broke me
Yeah, you're so sober
Is this over?
Or am I just crazy?
I'm not crazy
Yeah, you're so sober
Sober yeah.
