

Tennessee

Tessa Violet

Summer things and guitar strings and everything when I hear you sing.
Summer walks and skipping rocks and how he talks
'bout my blue Reeboks. Down an old dirt road where there's nowhere to go but into you, into you.
By the willow tree where it's just you and me, we'll say,
"I love you," "I love you too." Meet me in memory in Tennessee,
where the sky is filled with stars,
and your heart is filled with me.
Heat meets the night and your kiss with me.
You'll always have my heart in Tennessee. We'll take to feet and we'll race up the street. I will call you a cheat
for beatin' me out.
No need for coats when it's never cold, but I want you to know I will still hold you close. Where cicadas buzz and we are so in love and every star shines for you.
Where the city sleeps and you are mine to keep and
"I love you," "I love you too." Meet me in memory in Tennessee,
where the sky is filled with stars,
and your heart is filled with me.
Heat meets the night and your kiss with me.
You'll always have my heart in Tennessee. Oo-oo-oo-oo Oo-oo-oo-oo
Oo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo
A-aa-oh-wao-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Ohhhh Meet me in memory in Tennessee,
where the sky is filled with stars,

and your heart is filled with me.
Heat meets the night and your kiss with me.
You'll always have my heart (x3)
in Tennessee.
