

New Fears

Lights

I left my body
Down on our knees
Over the bedside
Watching you breathe
And I saw the fire
I felt the flames
I heard the banshees
Calling your name 'Cause I have these new fears
I carry with me
So you can feel stronger
And you can know peace
So just, hold on tight
I'll be coming, I'm coming for you, oh-oh
And every night I'll be burning, burning for you, oh-oh
And I will back you up
I will show you love
I will give you all I got 'til I can not
Hold on tight
I'm breathing, breathing for you, oh-oh And when you come under
I'll carry your chains
So you can feel freedom
And a little less pain
And if the poison
Burns in your blood
I'll drink that venom out of the cut 'Cause I have these new fears
I carry with me
Every bullet, I'm taking for you
So just, hold on tight
I'll be coming, I'm coming for you, oh-oh
And every night I'll be burning, burning for you, oh-oh
And I will back you up
I will show you love
I will give you all I got 'til I can not
Hold on tight
I'm breathing, breathing for you, oh-oh I'll take two time the misery
And half the glory
For them to be the champion of the story
And I'll take two times the agony
And half the wonder

If that meant you get twice
Twice the thunder So just, hold on tight
I'll be coming, I'm coming for you, oh-oh
And every night I'll be burning, burning for you, oh-oh
And I will back you up
I will show you love
I will give you all I got 'til I can not
Hold on tight
I'm breathing, breathing for you, oh-oh
