Leopard

Emma Forman

I guess I need rescuing
I guess I need somebody to save me from you and from myself
I guess I need a superhero right now
I guess I need someone special right now
I guess I need someone who could save me
Save me from the predator that's you
Always hunting the next one downA leopard like you never changes their spots
A leopard like you repeats on and on
A leopard like you never changes their spots
A leopard like you repeats and repeatsI want a better life than that I want what freedom brings
I want someone who can love me back without all this
I want true love
I want true love
I want true love
I want somebody who can settle downA leopard like you never changes their spots
A leopard like you repeats and repeats
A leopard like you never changes their spots
A leopard like you repeats and repeatsBack to start you go
Back to the start
Repeating the same old show
Over and over again
You just break their hearts
You just break their hearts
Over and over again
Back to the startA leopard like you never changes
A leopard like you repeats the same old mistakes
A leopard like you
