Feel No Pain

Ash

Cold wind rattles your bones,
Walking home on your own.
Once there was nothing you could do,
They were riding on your every move.
But I feel no pain,
Everyday is just the same.
And I feel no pain,
Everyday is just the same.
Moths unsettle your mind,
Mood swings side to side.
Songs that are easy to write,
Done in five minutes time.
And I feel no pain,
Everyday is just the same.
And I feel no pain,
Everyday is just the same.
Nothing can faze you now,
Now that it's all died down.
You could never outrun,
You were always outgunned.
You were no one at all,
You were always trying to stall.
You were nothing at all,
You were no one at all,
And I feel no pain,
Everyday is just the same.
And I feel no pain,
Everyday is just the same.
And I feel no shame,
When I'm standing in the rain.
Everyday is just the same
And I feel no pain.
And I feel no pain.
