

You Left a Long, Long Time Ago

Willie Nelson

You tell me today that you're leavin'
But just think a while
I'm sure that you must know
Today might be the day that you walk away
But you left me a long, long time ago
Today's just the day that ends it all
Except the usual memories
That always linger on
And today might be the day that you walk away
But you left me a long, long time ago
I stood with helpless hands
And watched me lose your love
A little more each day, then it was gone
And I kept wonderin'
Just how long until this day would come
Just how long could your pride keep hangin' on
So please don't say you're sorry
Don't say anything
Don't try to say why you must leave, just go
And today might be the day that you walk away
But you left me a long, long time ago
You left me a long, long time ago
