

Heavenly Body (feat. Rick Ross)

Lloyd

Your heavenly body
Lets get it
I'm the man, I'm the man, cellphone jumping
And I'm thumbing through a hunnid grand(Hustling)
Your heavenly bodyEvery time you come around
My heart drops to the ground
You bring the summer to the winter
You turn the saint to a sinner
You know, you know ya got that good na-na
The kind you only find in the hood
Like one of them Calis with the leather and the wood
You the one I hit, one I hit when I need the good shit
Fine as the DOA, not even the king of diamonds
Ain't nothing on you baby
I almost died last night
When you took off your clothes
My heart just stopped
Your heavenly body
And when we start off, won't stop
It's like I live in you, girl you're so soft
Your heavenly bodyYou're a 10 with your clothes on
You have the chart with your clothes off
Can't wait to get you to the crib
So I can break it off
You need a real man, you don't need no buster
I can tell you left your last one, cause he was a sucker
I'm just here to please you, I don't wanna hurt ya
I almost died last night
When you took off your clothes
My heart just stopped
Your heavenly body
And when we start off, won't stop
It's like I live in you, girl you're so soft
Your heavenly bodyTook you out the ghetto
Got you sleeping on the beach
Love the hood but gotta keep you out these sucker reach
Pledge allegiance to the hustle, she know I so sincere
Ceremony celebrating our last several years
Hugs and kisses, [?] that Goyard on my Mrs

Club money, C-notes that's coming for attention
I'm the man, I'm the man, cellphone jumping
And I'm thumbing through a hunnid grand (Hustling)
We the richest in the city
Fighting fire cases Mayweather in the building
Chicks showing me love but you're the only one I crave
Since back in the day before Lloyd grew out his braids I almost died last night
When you took off your clothes
My heart just stopped
Your heavenly body
And when we start off, won't stop
It's like I live in you, girl you're so soft
Your heavenly body Put your hands up if you down
I just wanna I just wanna lay you down
Put your hands up if you down
I just wanna I just wanna lay you down
