

Mr. Blues Menu

Blue October

Writing on a cup of coffee
As she waits my table
And she smiles when able
From the inside And who would've thought a cup of coffee
Would make my legs unstable
Shaking
Under the table
Must be stagefright And would it really phase me
If I had all the toys of
All the clumsy boys for you
And would it really kill you
If you would try to have a good time
Instead of screwing up mine
But you do I'm in Love Brings a cup of coffee as she sits down slowly
Now the chair is holy
From the inside
And who would've thought that a cup of coffee
Would make my legs unstable
Shaking
Under the table
Must be stagefright I'm in Love
