Alice Said

Screaming Trees

Alice said to, "Come on in now it's time for bed
The hour's quite late I need a nap to clear my head"
And later down, the pillow softly calls to me
I've been sent down, bounced all around
Now I can't see, blind, happilyAlice said, "Have you forgotten what will be Concealed in smiles that come too late, now I can't see"
The sun goes down, thoughts go astray
She might take my soul away
Don't close the shade, until the twilight fadesAlice said to, "Come on in now it's time for bed
The hour's quite late I need a nap to clear my head"
The sun goes down, thoughts go astray
She might take my soul away
Don't close the shade, until the twilight fades
Don't close the shade, until the twilight fadesAlice said
