

Coloured Bedspread

Annie Lennox

Bright lights are going dim
I wanna hide again
The nights are caving in
On my coloured bedspread
I wanna drift so far
To slip out of the crowd
It doesn't matter how
On my coloured bedspread
We'll make the stars dissolve
Like sugar melting in my mouth
Some people come and go
But they won't ever know
About the things we do
On my coloured bedspread
I remember places I've been to Remember things I never knew
Remember dreams that all came true
On my coloured bedspread

We make the stars collide
I touch the planets through your eyes
Ooh, can you feel it?
Tell me, can you feel it?
Now, can you feel it?
Tell me, can you feel it?
Now, can you feel it?
Tell me, can you feel it?
Now, can you feel it?
Tell me, can you feel it?
We'll make the stars dissolve
Like sugar melting in my mouth
Beneath my coloured bedspread
Beneath my coloured bedspread
Beneath my coloured bedspread
