

Around the Plynth

Faces

Woken up on mornings such as this
Thought exactly the same as I'm thinking now
Every night for a year I've slept alone
Cold, damp room looks worse than me, no, no, no
Got a fear of death that creeps on every night
I know I won't die soon, but then again I might Water down the drain, I'm wasting away
Doctors can't help the ghost of a man that's me, no, no, no
Water down the drain goes to the sea
The pattern of my life keeps a-haunting me
Moisture from the ocean fills the sky
Come on down to the ground as the time goes by, no no no, no no no
I never found out the reason why
Oh why my parents had to lie
About the place that I was born
Or from my hometown I was torn
At the tender age of four
I was livin' by homemade law
I never knew when it was to be laid
My desires are never displayed
I never knew what it was to be loved
I never knew what it was to be laid
I never knew what it was to win
I never knew what it was to be loved no, no, no
Get on up there I never knew what it was to be loved
I never knew what it was to be laid
No, no, no, no, no, no, no
