Live To Lose

Aaron Shust

Take my life, take it all
I lay it at Your throne
I am rich, satisfied
When I am Yours alone
I have learned to live to lose
I have found my home in You
I count it all as lose, it's true
'Cause I have learned to live to lose
Precious One, crucified
Died to set me free
I hold nothing back from You
Who gave it all for me
I have learned to live to lose
I have found my home in You
I count it all as lose, it's true
'Cause I have learned to live to lose
Jesus You're the One, You're the only One for me
Jesus You're the One, You're the only One for me
Jesus You're the One, You're the only One for me
Jesus You're the One, You're the only One for me
I have learned to live to lose
I have found my home in You
I count it all as lose, it's true
I have learned to live
Yes, I have learned to live to lose
I have learned to live to lose
