Pinned You Down

HEADSTONES

What the hell have we created
Punctuate the punch you hated
With remorse that's overrated
Killed the time but didn't waste it, order has been reinstated.
Now it's time, stop the hatred
Save the world before they pave it
Overkill's an understatement
Presidents are nearly naked
Every houghtis slightly jaded down...Simply pinned you down
Simply pinned you down
Simply pinned you down
Simply pinned youWake up late and nearly naked
Nothing left for us to take
A chance to move
Alleviate the pain that causes the frustration
You don't like It, smell ya laterEliminate the time it takes you
To go from apathy to issues
Look ahead you must continue
Rediscover the strength within you
Everyone you know has pinned you down...
Eliminate the time and the day you go from
Every one you know is pinned you down
