One in Ten

808 State

No chance I could be her boyfriend
I'm trying to flip butch girls again
We could see what life pretends
And widen our circle of friends
She said
You know I love you but I feel so one in ten
But life is short and dull
Categorized to the full until the charm is gone
You're a big girl, if you wanna get it on
You will and if you don't, you won't
She said
You know I love you but I feel so one in ten
You could have such a life with me
You could knit baby sweaters
We could watch a flat screen TV
She said
You know I love you but I feel so one in ten
What's the difference when it goes down
If it's a girl or if it's guys?
Can't you just close your eyes?
Baby, close your eyes, baby, close your eyes
Love doesn't come in perfect packages
That means I qualify
And I know you're born this way
But I thought we could give it a try
She said
You know I love you but I feel so one in ten
You know I love you but I feel so one in ten
You know I love her, she'll always be my one in ten
