

It's Possible

Roxette

Got to grab a pen & paper
Got to write a tiny note to you
I can't get you out of my system
There's something very difficult about you

It's possible
When I get that feeling
it's so revealing
It's possible
When you're givin' that look
I just wanna oh-oh-oh!

People tell me all the wrong things
People tell me I don't have a clue
There's something in the air, I just know it Like patches on the skin it sticks like glue

It's possible
When I get that feeling
it's so revealing
It's possible
When you're givin' that look
I just wanna oh-oh-oh!

The sound of your heartbeat promise so much
The sound of your heartbeat promise so much

doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doooo
Got to write a tiny note to you
doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doooo
There's something very difficult about you

It's possible
When I get that feeling
it's so revealing
It's possible
When you're givin' that look
I just wanna oh-oh-oh!
When I get that feeling
it's so revealing

It's possible
When you're givin' that look
I just wanna oh-oh-oh!
I just wanna oh-oh-oh!
I just wanna oh-oh-oh!
