She Does

Chad Brock

Don't remember what I was sayin'
The first time I struck a conversation up
But I think that she doesI don't recall what song was playin'
The first time that I finally felt her touch
But I'm pretty sure that she doesAll of those moments now are just a blur
Don't know exactly when I fell for herBut she does something to me that I can't explain
She's a walk in the park, she's a runaway train
She lifts me up, she calms me down
When I can't turn my life aroundShe does and I probably don't even see
All the little things that she does for me
If anybody on this earth knows
The meaning of love, she doesI know my family means the world to me
But sometimes I forget to call them up
I know that she doesI'm working hard every single day
But I don't know how to say enough's enough
She doesWithout her love I would be half a man
Sometimes I know I'm hard to understandBut she does something to me that I can't explain
She's a walk in the park, she's a runaway train
She lifts me up, she calms me down
When I can't turn my life aroundShe does and I probably don't even see
All the little things that she does for me
If anybody on this earth knows
The meaning of love, she doesShe does something to me that I can't explain
She's a walk in the park, she's a runaway train
She's an anchor in a raging sea
When I need to fly she gives me wingsShe does and I probably don't even see
All the little things that she does for me
If anybody on this earth knows
The meaning of love, she does, she does, she does
