

Believe Your Eyes

Nine Lashes

Strange, the color seems to change
So crystal is the world we view
(The world we view)

Wave, I feel it changing state
Dripping what we thought we knew
(We thought we knew)
It's all rushing to me

Can anybody see?
You won't believe your eyes
A stranger to me
You won't believe your eyes

The rain, the subtle shades of grey
Have all but found the way from here
(The way from here)

The sounds of color streaming down
Is inches from the heart, I hear
(The heart, I hear)
If I could just let it in

Can anybody see?
You won't believe your eyes
A stranger to me
You won't believe your eyes

It's just that I know
That I've lost
I'm a stranger here and this time I'll be letting it go
Off to the sky
Find me the way
Oh, this feeling of mine, of mine

Can anybody see?
You won't believe your eyes
A stranger to me
You won't believe your eyes

Can anybody see?
You wont believe you eyes
A stranger to me
You wont believe your eyes
