Everywhere We Go

SonReal

Yeah, yeah, burd 'n keyz
Who that there, huh you ain't gonna ask no longer right?
You ain't gonna ask no longer right?
You ain't gonna ask no longer longer?
Who that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we go (they're saying)
Who that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we goIt's me, Jean Jacket with the chops lee Showin' off a young homie (zzzz)
No no no I ain't doin' him
(Him him him him him)
(Na na na na na)
Doing me's me's me's me's
Grew up on the top I rap to Really make you spit it
So if you see him kill it you ain't gotta ask who did it
Girls, they totally love the way I'm singing
I say baby that's the heart
They take the verses that I'm bringin like
About one year ago, I was all on my own
We was trying to get on, so I put the pen to my dome
Wrote the realest shit in my life
Then I put it all in a poem
Critics said that I was crazy, now they write their asses homeThey're saying
Who that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we go (they're saying)
Who that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we goIt's me, never talkin' bout no molly
Or I rap about a hottie on my body like a goddy
I'm tourin' up in Cali but my roadies in the lobby
People ask me who I am I just give their ass a copy like
Take that shit and goodness baby I'm back
Ain't got no way and that's fact
You could tell by the way that I rap whoo
Came up in this motherfucker ain't nobody like it
Thought of what I thought you know I will write it
Get up in the booth and now it's time that I'll recite it
Fuck 'em any blow and I'll take the way I like it
Dollar up in my pocket, tryna make this my own

Critics call my ass crazy now they writing their ass homeThey're saying
Who that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we go (they're saying)
Who that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we goCool kid, cool kid ay tell me what you see
'Cause if I see it I'mma be that too
Go ahead and follow me follow me
New kid new kid ay it's all I really be
Mama tell me way back I'm a star
Now I'm walking down the street everybody that sees saysWho that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we go (they're saying)
Who that there huh everywhere we go
Everywhere we go, everywhere we goYou ain't gonna ask no longer right?
You ain't gonna ask no longer right?
No longer longer right, no longer right?
