

Crashing Down

Shannon Noll

Why,
Why do you make it so hard to stop the rain?
Tell me why do you paint every picture in black
And filled with pain?

Pre.1.

Your life is in colour
We found one another
But you push me away

Ch.1

When it all comes crashing down
And I take a look around
Oh you are all I see
Nothing in between
You and me

V.2.

Oh I die,
From that look of disdain in your eyes
And I can't speak
How many times
Must I walk on this sharp broken glass?
And turn the other cheek?

Ch.2.

Cause' when it all comes crashing down
And I take a look around
Yeh you are all I see
Nothing in between
Just you and me

Bridge.It's like your tempting fate to far
What if I'm gone in the daylight?
You know I'll stay right here with you
And it's so hard to carry both of us through.

Ch.3.

When it all comes crashing down
When it all comes crashing down
When it all comes crashing down
You are all I see yeh
You are all I need
Nothing in between
Just you and me

Turn it up
Turn it up
We can take it higher
Up
Turn it up
Turn it up
We can take it higher
