

See You Around

Chris Brown

You love another man
My heart is broken in two
She has a ring on the other hand
She's scared to tell me the truth
But, if you are leaving
I want you to know that
I should've loved you way more
Way more
So this is the end of us now
I'll see you around
I'll see you around
Around
You mean more to me than anything
And finished 'cause you don't love me
No no, no no
So I just wanna see you happy
And now that you're comfortable
I think that I'm losing my mind
It's crazy, 'cause we were so inseparable
Guess things change with time
Does he kiss and wipe away your tears
Does he tell you that there's nothing to fear
Oh, if I had a wishing well
I would have you right here
So girl if you are Leaving
Baby, I want you to know that
I should've loved you way more
Way more
So if this is the end of us now
I'll see you around
I'll see you around
Around
You mean more to me than anything
And finished 'cause you don't love me
No no, no no
So I just wanna see you happy
I didn't listen, you went missin'
He has your heart now
I'm missin' your kisses, want it again
Don't leave me down
Wish I could keep you all to myself
I wanna work it out
But you moved on
I see it now
Oh, oh guess I'll see you around
