Risen

Den Sorte Skole

Taste my words dear
Feel them renewing
Feel them renew false promises
I could smell your fear
When I told you that we would have to walk into the dark
And look where you're wandering now.
Sing out the words I couldn't say yesterday
Now Ive grown from everything you made me
Listen closely now like a ghost from the past
As I'm rising
Twist your words dear,
Mold them into these
Mold them into false promises
Never shed a tear when you turned your back
Drift away, but Ill rise from the ash
So are you listening?
Cause I want you to hear me now

Sing out the words I couldn't say yesterday
Now Ive grown from everything you made me
Listen closely now like a ghost from the past
As I'm rising
Days will pass you by
Leave your motions dry
Stripping petals of shriveled roses
You'll start to wonder why
Sing out the words I couldn't say yesterday
Now Ive grown from everything you made me
Listen closely now like a ghost from the past
As I'm rising
Sing out the words I couldn't say yesterday
Now Ive grown from everything you made me
Listen closely now like a ghost from the past
As I'm rising
