3 Days Ago

Mario Winans

Time is taken a toll on my life
These days keep on passing me by
I want to see you, but there's no time
So I sit here and stare at the sky
And I'm hopin' that you realize
I want to feel you, but there's no timeYesterday you said that we couldn't get away
The day before I was alone like any other day
3 days ago I wrote this song just for you
Will I ever get through, through to you?Time, just won't see me eye to eye
I'm still waiting for you to reply
I need to hear you, but there's no time
So I'll skip this line
I can't deny I miss you
Can we spend more time?Yesterday you said that we couldn't get away
The day before I was alone like any other day
3 days ago I wrote this song just for you
Will I ever get through, through to you?I've waited so long to wait for you
And spend all my food, will I ever get through?
What can I do to get this through?
My love is for you, your love is for meI just can't waste any more time
So tell me what's with you and I
I waited for you so give me timeYesterday you said that we couldn't get away
The day before I was alone like any other day
3 days ago I wrote this song just for you
Will I ever get through, through to you?Yesterday you said that we couldn't get away
The day before I was alone like any other day
3 days ago I wrote this song just for you
Will I ever get through, through to you?Baby, baby, baby
Oh will I ever get through to you baby?
