

Without Again

Elliott BROOD

The road divides ahead
Just wide awake in bed
Unaware of suspicious feelings happening again
His love went south, and he'll go west
A mountain of song couldn't fill that hole in his chest
That she left when she said that he was like the rest
So get up and get out
What're you down about?
Put it back on the shelf
Just have to go without again
So get up and get out
What're you down about?
Put it back on the shelf
Just have to go without again
The road divides ahead
Just wide awake in bed
Put it back on the shelf
Just have to go without again
