

Songbird

Jillian Edwards

I wanna be a songbird
And I wanna sit on the tallest branch of the tallest tree
And I wanna sing lullabies to Earth as she cries
And I really wanna try and make her laugh

I wanna be a songbird
And I wanna watch sunrise
With my love by my side
And I wanna grow and I wanna learn
I wanna fire and I wanna burn
I wanna rise and I wanna fall
I wanna run and I wanna crawl
I wanna be a songbird

And I just wanna try to know how far and deep and wide
This love is that you give
That's what it is to really live
To just try and look around
See you in our breath and hear you in our sounds
I wanna be a songbird
Ahhh ahhh

Go through things that I need
Make me hurt make me bleed
Cuz I wanna rise and see the light
Pray my way through the night
I wanna be a songbird
I wanna sing lullabies to the Earth as she cries
I wanna try and make her laugh

How you made me laugh
You made me laugh
You made me laugh

Ahhh ahhh
Ahhh ahhh

Take the strings and the things
I use to tie me to the ground
Let them all be gone

I wanna be a songbird

I wanna be a songbird

Ahhh ahhh
