

Once Around the Block

Badly Drawn Boy

Candle on fire, I'm putting you out
Maybe tonight we could be the last shout
But I'm fascinated by your style Feeling instead of being
The more that I live on the inside
Nothing to give
I'm infatuated by your moves
Got to search hard for your clues I want to repair your desire
Call it a gift, wanting to live
See the vision through your eyes
Your innocence no longer fuels surprise Candle on fire, I'm putting you out
Maybe tonight we could be the last shout
Candle on fire
