Unthought Known

Pearl Jam

All the thoughts you never see
You are always thinking
Brain is wired, the brain is deep
Oh, are you sinking?Feel the path of every day
Which road you taking?
Breathing hard, making hay
Yeah, this is livingLook for love in evidence
That you're worth keeping
Swallowed whole in negatives
It's so sad and sickeningFeel the air up above
Oh, pool of blue sky
Fill the air up with love
All black with starlightFeel the sky blanket you
With gems and rhinestones!!!
See the path cut by the moon
For you to walk onFor you to walk on...Nothing left, nothing left
Nothing there, nothing here...
Nothing left, nothing left
Nothing there, nothing left...
Nothing there, nothing here...See the path cut by the moon
For you to walk on
See the waves on distant shores
Awaiting your arrivalDream the dreams of other men
You'll be no one's rival
Dream the dreams of others then
You will be no one's rivalYou will be no one's rival...A distant time, a distant space
That's where we're living
A distant time, a distant place
So what ya giving?
What ya giving?
