

Come to the Well

Laura Rhinehart

I love Jesus
How I love you
I love Jesus
So sweet, so kind
How I love to look into your eyes
How I love to gaze on your beautiful face
You are everything that I desire
You are everything that I long for Jesus
I love Jesus
How I love you
I love Jesus
How I love you
((Na da da la la la la la la))
((Na da da da da))
Come to the well
Come to the well
Come to the well
And drink in, drink in
Come to the well
Come to the well
And drink in, drink in
Come to the well
Be filled, be filled
Come to the well
Be filled, be filled
Come to the well
((humming briefly))
It's deep, It's deep, it's deep
Come drink of his limitless love
Come drown yourself in his endless pleasures
In his delights
Don't you know that I never run dry?
Do you know that I never run dry?
My well is always full of life, full of joy, full of peace
Full of everything, everything, everything that you'll ever need
Do you know that I love you?
Do you know that I'm covering you?
With my love like water

With my peace falling like rain all over you
I can fill his love swelling and swelling and growing
Stronger inside of me
Swelling and growing
Deeper and wider inside of me
Do you feel?
Do you feel it swelling inside of you?
It's expanding
I see walls busting out
Walls busting down from the expansion of his love today
And light is coming in, light is coming in today
Light is flooding in, light is flooding in today
