Echoes

Saba Joon

It's like carrying the weight of a thousand eyes
So hard to fall asleep when my minds alive
Everything you said to me echoes
Polluted with the substance I need to survive
So I walk the line
And I'm terrified
This emptyness
and my heart cries

Everything you said to me echoes
Everything you said to me echoes

Everything you said to me echoes
(You said to me)
Everything you said to me echoes
Yeah
Everything you said to me echoes
(You said to me)
Everything you said to be echoes

Sitting in this fear and lonely
No I need to walk away but slowly
The pattern reoccurs and I'm holding on
This entity is tricky when you're lonely
You were everything to me
Such beautiful enimies
Water rides
But there's no one here to bring me to See you in my deepest dreams
See you lying next to me

Everything you said to me echoes
(You said to me)
Everything you said to me echoes
Yeah
Everything you said to me echoes
(You said to me)
Everything you said to me echoes

See you and me
We're not meant to be
This game we play repeats itself like history
See you and me
We're not meant to be
This love is like toxic and it's killing me

Everything you said to me echoes
Everything you said to me echoes
Everything you said to me echoes
Everything you said to me echoes

Everything you said to me echoes
(You said to me, you said to me)
Everything you said to me echoes
Yeah

Everything you said to me echoes
(You said to me, you said to me)
Everything you said to me echoes

You said to me, you said to me
You said to me, you said to me
